MITCHELL INTERNATIONAL CONTRIBUTES $5,000 TO SUPPORT THE COLLISION INDUSTRY

HOFFMAN ESTATES, IL – August 29, 2007– Mitchell International contributed a total of $5,000 to support the efforts of the I-CAR Education Foundation in August 2007. The $5,000 contribution to the Education Foundation General Fund will support many of the programs and services administered by the Education Foundation.

“We are excited to have the opportunity to work closer with Mitchell International and are proud of the leadership role they play in the collision industry,” said Clark Plucinski, Immediate Past Chairman of the I-CAR Education Foundation Board of Trustees. “The contribution received from Mitchell International will allow us to continue creating programs, products, and services for career and technical schools and colleges that will assist them in preparing entry-level technicians,” said Ron W. Ray, Executive Director of the I-CAR Education Foundation.

“Mitchell is proud to be a part of the collision repair industry and is honored to support the efforts of the Foundation,” said Greg Horn, Vice President of Industry Relations at Mitchell International. “We are grateful to the industry for all the support it has shown to us over the past 60 years and feel that it is a privilege to be able to give back to our industry colleagues.”
